IN MEMORY OF

In Memory----We, the Seniors of 1957, wish to dedicate this page to the memory of Mrs. Walter Krider.

Sir Thomas More's words "I have lived, I have labored and I have loved" in part sum up the life of Anastatia Krider. Her heart and her home were always open to those who needed friendship and love. Her interest and concern for young people often bridged the gap of loneliness for many students, especially for those whose homes were over seas. Her talents were many. Her capacity for living as a child of God gave her strength beyond her physical endurance and enabled her to give of her utmost to her family and those with whom she worked.

CLASS PROPHECY

It's graduation night for the class of '67 up in the abandoned study hall. A little party is being held that no one knows about. Let's eavesdrop and see what's going on. The study hall clock is talking to the desks in the Assembly.

"Yes, another class has left us for good. It always makes me wonder what will happen to these graduates in, say ten years or so. Since we have no way of foretelling the future, let's look at the accomplishments of the class that graduated from M.H.S. 10 years ago, the class of '57.

You all remember Phyllis Baker, the girl who always looked like a fashion plate? Now she is the proud captain of a garbage scow.

There was a joker named Bob Bailey; he's a mortician now; he owns "Bob's Body Shop".

Carol Beer, who waited so long for her man to come home from the army, runs a U.S.O.

Lowell Beer, the florist's son, has filled out and is now making his living as a lumber jack.

Kae Blake, the dark haired girl who used to take a lot of ribbing about her driving, is now a famous racer. The name of her car is the "Kurzin' K".

Jr. Bucher, the athlete who always pulled a ligament or sprained his ankle right before tournament time, has become a doctor specializing in sprained ankles, etc.

Alice Duncan was always a petite little lady with a flawless complexion. Now she works in a gas station as a grease monkey. Terry Haab is her employer. Terry decided that he spent so much time running back and forth to Nappanee that he might as well move in. Terry is doing quite well at Nap. with his used car lot and Station called "Terrible Terry's with Pathetic Prices".

Laura Free, the picture of poise and refinement, has realized her duty to the public. She has been made Dog Catcher.

Sally Gerber and Bob Bullock heard their calling to the stage and are well known by movie fans the world over as "Mammy and Poppy Yokum".

Paul Haab, who always was one to have a good basis for everything, is selling women's foundation garments to all the leading department stores.

Nancy Hall, you will remember, was quite often the center of attraction as far as some of the boys were concerned. Now Nancy is running a boarding house and threatens to stay an old maid the rest of her life.

Fred Hershberger, one of our star athletes, is now one of the best loved guys around. He has his own T.V. show entitled "Uncle Freddy's Fables". All the kids from 2-10 watch him.

Pat Leighty grew up by a lake, as you know. It seems she couldn't get the love of water out of her veins and she has set a new record for swimming the English Channel.

Jerry Method was a nice looking boy with lots of wavy hair. Well, he made his first million in the oil fields, then decided to make it double by investing in the stock market. The fluctuating of the market was too much for Jerry. He became so nervous that he lost all his hair.

Joyce Martin has latent talents that she never showed at M.H.S. After graduation Joyce was heard humming to herself by a talent scout and she is now a well known singer under the name, Jaie Jones.

Norman Miller always was at the head of everything M.H.S. did in relation to F.F.A. or Ag. in high school. Now he serves the nation as Secretary of Agriculture.

Judy Martin, the girl who was thinking of going into the nursing profession, didn't quite do what she intended but she is in something along the same line. She's running the "Health Haven" the best health-food restaurant in the midwest.

Dennis Sharp, along with Bob and Sally, felt the lure of acting and now he is the screen's greatest lover since Valentino.

Nancy Miller, with her love of an argument, is one of the most successful attorneys in the state. I hear she's thinking of running for District Attorney.

Orvel Miller started playing a guitar for amusement shortly after graduation. When he found he could sing, he changed his hair cut and his name to Olvis and was a smashing sensation.

Maurine Smith, a girl who was always a good judge of people and the intrinsic value of things, put her knowledge to work. Maurine is now a very well-to-do pawnbroker.

Larry Troup made use of his love of cars and good manners. Larry is now a chauffeur for Miss Gina Lollabridgida.

Marcia Vonderveer went into somewhat the same line of work as Larry did. She is now a lady Cab Driver in busy New York City.

Ray Zimmerman, having always been interested in science, developed the fisherman's dream, the scaleless fish!

Karen Widup, (even during high school days) the life to the party, has written a best selling joke book called "Say, Have You Heard This One?"

Bill Blake has reached heights beyond his wildest dreams. Not only was he able to become a coach, but he's head coach of Vassar, a girls' college!

Fame and fortune have finally come to Pat Tobin. After many years of struggling along, she was discovered by Hollywood and is now replacing Marjorie Maine.

Yes, it is interesting to look back and see what has happened to the graduating class of 1957."

Fritz,
Just a word to wish you luck in the future. You've been a pretty good fellow while you were up here and you can really make a go of it if you only want to. Just remember, life is what you make it and you have the personality and brains to really amount to something. However, whatever don't forget to "have a ball."
Just do.
